Description

Point Roberts Airpark is a single-grass-runway airport located in the town of Point Roberts, Washington. The airport, along with the marina, provide the only access to the rest of Washington state without first having to pass through British Columbia.

There are several restaurants available within a short walk North of the airport. Saltwater Cafe is a great place for food, just verify that it will be open. It is recommend you check websites or call before stopping in, especially in the off-season, hours may be irregular.

Another food option in the area is Kiniski's Reef Bar & Grill located on the other side of the intersection from the Saltwater Cafe.

Camping is available just South of the airport at the Lighthouse Marine Park. You can get there either by walking the road or ducking through the woods on the southeast corner of the runway.
